

PARAGON ART SCHOOL BOOKING FORM

Paragon Art School is led by the highly talented Head of Art, Miss Alex Hucks and held at The Paragon School.

Things to note:

- Art aprons are provided, but we highly recommend wearing old, named clothes.
- Due to the outdoor nature of the 'Where my wellies take me' workshop, children should bring wellies as well as appropriate hats, raincoats, sunscreen for the weather.
- Children should bring a nut-free packed lunch and water bottle.

Fashion Illustration Day Spend the day extending your fashion drawing skills and collage using mixed media. We will be investigating a range of contemporary fashion illustrators such as Julie Verhoeven and Sasha Pivovarova.	Years 3-6/ Aged 8-11 years	Monday 13 August 9.30am-4pm £35
Where my wellies take me... Inspired by the Michael Morpurgo book of this name, this three-day workshop will be outdoors with nature. It will involve developing the children's scrapbooking and sketch book techniques to create a giant sketch book. We will focus on a range of drawing, painting, photography, collage and printmaking techniques with a focus on nature and the landscape. The children will also be introduced to a range of artists linking with this subject.	Years 3-6/ Aged 8-11 years	Tuesday 14 to Thursday 16 August. 9.30am-4pm This is a three-day workshop and individual days cannot be booked. £100
Robots... During this workshop the children will be investigating the work of Eduardo Paolozzi and creating their own collaged robots through experimental print making.	Years R- 2/Aged 5-8 years	Monday 20 August 9.30am-3.30pm £35

Whilst the staff and helpers in charge of the children in the group will take all reasonable care for their health and safety, they cannot be held responsible, unless they are found to be negligent, for any injury, illness, damage or loss suffered by the child. Parents/carers therefore, agree to indemnify The Paragon School, its employees and agents against all liability for injury (including death), illness, loss to person or persons or damage to property caused by the child unless this was due to the negligence of The Paragon School or any of its employees or agents. If necessary, the children will receive first response first aid from the first aid trained staff at the holiday activity and may be referred to qualified medical personnel. Parents/carers agree to their child receiving medication and to any emergency dental, medical or surgical treatment, including anaesthetic or blood transfusion, which in the opinion of a qualified medical practitioner may be necessary for their child. All children who are ill or infectious be kept home for the full duration of their ailment, and for 48 hours after the last symptom occurs. The Paragon staff will only administer medication if it has been prescribed by a doctor or other health professional. For health & safety reasons, we require that all children are fully toilet trained. We are not able to offer nappy changing facilities.

The Paragon encourages a relaxed atmosphere during the holiday activities and aims to promote positive behaviour at all times. Parents/carers will ensure that their child understands it is important for his/her safety and the safety of the group that he/she obeys any rules and instructions given by the staff in charge. They understand that he/she must respect the property of others, he/she will be patient, honest, fair, and polite to others, he/she will not use abusive or obscene language nor be aggressive in the way they speak or behave towards others and he/she will respect and treat others as they would wish to be treated. The Paragon follows a zero tolerance policy on discrimination, bullying and persistent poor behaviour of any kind, irrespective of any special needs. On rare occasions, and in more serious cases, we reserve the right to exclude children from the holiday activity. No refund will be made for any remaining days booked, and any costs associated with the exclusion, including transport home, will be the parents' responsibility.

Children should not bring money, mobile phones or other electronic devices to the holiday activities. The Paragon will not be held responsible for any items that get damaged or go missing. We endeavour to return lost property wherever possible, but in order to do this, we ask that all items are clearly named.

Be aware that we occasionally take photographs of children on camp for promotional purposes. Please advise if you have any objections. All children in our care are covered by our Public Liability Insurance.
